

Ealing Sports Awards Nomination Criteria 2024

General criteria that apply to nominations in all award categories include:

- ✚ Clubs should be safe, effective and accessible to all
- ✚ Clubs and individuals should be inclusive and friendly, fair and equitable
- ✚ Individuals should be mindful of others and welcoming to all
- ✚ Nominations can be made for a club or individual in more than one category

Specific criteria for each award category are listed below:

Award	About this award	Criteria
Junior club of the year	Recognising an Ealing based junior club, organisation or junior section of a club (defined as a group of people participating in physical activity or sport together) that provides a positive, appropriate and effective experience for all junior participants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has demonstrated excellent practice in providing a friendly, welcoming and inclusive environment for participants and those involved with running the club Has demonstrated effective working with partners in the community to make it simpler for participants to be active Has demonstrated best business practice to make both activities and the organisation sustainable Has demonstrated impact by getting more young Ealing residents active
Sports club of the year	Recognising an Ealing based voluntary sports sector club or organisation (defined as a group of people participating in physical activity or sport together) that provides a positive, appropriate and effective experience for all participants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has demonstrated excellent practice in providing a friendly, welcoming and inclusive environment for participants and those involved with running the club Has demonstrated effective working with partners in the community to make it simpler for male and female participants of all ages and abilities to be active Has demonstrated best business practice to make both activities and the organisation sustainable Has demonstrated impact by getting more Ealing residents active Has demonstrated innovation and impact through delivering engaging activities
Coach of the year	Recognising an appropriately qualified sports coach based in Ealing who has created an inspiring environment for all participants to achieve their potential e.g. a club or team sports coach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Is seen as an outstanding and inspiring role model by participants and coaches Has demonstrated a commitment to personal development Has a recognised and current coaching qualification Has created a motivating environment, above and beyond expectation, to get the best out of all participants Made a positive impact by increasing participation and/or inspiring & encouraging others to improve Used innovative ideas to promote, develop and enhance their delivery
Junior sports person of the year	Recognising a young Ealing based individual under 18 years of age who has achieved outstanding sporting success	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has made significant progress in the field of sport Has made a significant impact on sport in Ealing and been an inspiration to others Has exceeded expectations in their sporting performance or made a significant difference to a team

Ealing Sports Awards Nomination Criteria 2024

Award	About this award	Criteria
Adult sports person of the year	Recognising an individual based in Ealing who has achieved outstanding sporting success	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has made significant progress in the field of sport Has made a significant impact on sport in Ealing and been an inspiration to others Has exceeded expectations in their sporting performance or made a significant difference to a team
Junior volunteer of the year	Recognising a young volunteer who has made a positive contribution to physical activity and sport in Ealing e.g. a club official, referee, judge, committee member, event organiser, team manager, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A young person aged under 18, seen as an outstanding role model to others Has demonstrated commitment and support to others through volunteering Made a positive impact by enabling others to be more active and/or compete Demonstrated enthusiasm and commitment to a sport or club
Adult volunteer of the year	Recognising an adult volunteer who has made a positive contribution to physical activity and sport in Ealing e.g. a club official, referee, judge, committee member, event organiser, team manager, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Is seen as an outstanding role model by peers and others Has demonstrated commitment and support to others through volunteering Made a positive impact by enabling others to be more active and/or compete Demonstrated enthusiasm and commitment to a sport or club
Outstanding contribution to sport	Recognising an individual who over a number of years has made a significant impact in sport in Ealing, at a sports club or in the community and has enabled many people to enjoy playing sport e.g. a sports coach, club official, committee member, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has over many years volunteered their time and energy to enable others to play sport or to be active Has stood out from the crowd through their actions and attitude Strives to improve opportunities for others Has helped others achieve their sporting potential
Inclusive and Active Award	Recognising an Ealing based organisation or individual who has organised new sport and/or physical activity opportunities for a particular group of people, who have felt less able to be active for a wide range of reasons.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An organisation, club or individual that has provided a new opportunity for a particular group of people to be active This can be a new activity, a new section in a club, a new event or a new club. Made a significant impact on participation levels for a less active group of people and been an inspiration to others Devoted continuous time and resources to the development of this activity Helped themselves and/or others to overcome barriers to take part in sport / physical activity Been a role model / mentor for a particular group of people wanting to play sport or be active